COAL STRIKE AVERTED

Leaders To Meet Again

Washington, June 14. The personal intervention of President Roosevelt has again averted a major industrial catastrophe in the United States. The President, at a conference at the White House to-day, secured the promise of the Union leaders of the bituminous coal miners that strike involving 145,000 men, called for Monday, would be postponed until June 1.

President Roosevelt made it clear that he wanted more time in which to attempt conciliation by means of arbitration.

This strike, which many believed would precipitate violence in the great coal mining areas, was called to enforce the maintenance of the New Deal standards of wages and working hours. It was to a great extent the result of the decision of the Supreme Court outlawing the President's control of industry in the matter of working conditions.

The Union leaders fell in with the President's plan, leaving the proviso that the men must agree and that meanwhile the existing wage agreements should continue. A recommendation to this effect will be put by the Union leaders to a mass meeting of miners to-morrow and it is confidently expected that it will be adopted.

STRIKE LEADERS AGREE

Washington, June 15. The workers in the coal industry confirmed the leaders' decision to call off the coal strike mentioned yesterday. The decision was reached at a joint conference of the United Mine Workers Union and representatives of the Soft Coal Workers which unanimously agreed to reassemble on June 24 to renew negotiations for a wages and hours agreement to replace those expiring at the end of June.

FORCED IDLENESS

Toledo, Ohio, June 14. Workers in the Edison Company here who yesterday decided upon the immediate renewal of their strike, whereby 30,000 persons had been forced into idleness until it was called off ten days ago, have now accepted the arbitration offer of Miss Frances Perkins, the Secretary for Labour in the Roosevelt Administration.

AMENDMENTS APPROVED

Washington, June 14. Following yesterday's delay, the House of Representatives reconvened to-day and after a brief and listless debate approved the Senate amendments to the N.R.A. extension Bill, thus completing congressional action.

The measure now goes to President Roosevelt for his signature. The House passed the Bill by a vote of 338 to 30.

AMERICAN CONSUL TO RETIRE

Shanghai, June 15. It is reported from Washington that the State Department has announced the retirement, effective from December 31, of Mr. E. B. Cunningham, U. S. Consul-General in Shanghai. Mr. Cunningham said that he had not heard anything yet, but supposed that the news was true, as he was already two years past the retirement age.

A likely successor as Consul-General is Mr. Monnet Davis, who was transferred to Shanghai from Stockholm several months ago.

THE REINSDORF DISASTER

Seeking Bodies In Ruins

Berlin, June 14.

It was officially announced this afternoon that thus far 45 bodies had been recovered from the ruins of the Reinsdorf explosives factory. The victims were workers who were trapped in the plant when explosions and fire swept the place.

It is not expected that the total death toll will exceed 62, however. Earlier estimates placed the loss of life variously between 50 and 100.

Berlin, June 15.

All athletic and sporting events taking place to-morrow will be interrupted by a one-minute silence as a tribute to the victims of the Reinsdorf explosion tragedy. This expression of national mourning has been decreed by the Reich sport leader von Tschammer und Osten in a proclamation stressing that all Germany has been overshadowed by the tragic disaster. Reichsbishop Mueller has also sent a telegram to all that requesters a special reference to the victims of the tragedy in Sunday services and application of the collections to relieve the distress of the survivors.

FREE SATURDAY LAW IN ITALY

(Special to the "Hong Kong Daily Press" (Copyright)).

Rome, June 15.

"Fascistic Saturday Afternoon" is a new institution established in Italy by a Cabinet decision at the instigation of Mussolini. The afternoon will be free from usual duties but is to be devoted to sport or preferably to military training of all sections of the Italian people. This amounts in principle to division of time between Fascist organisations which are authorised to utilise Saturday afternoon for preliminary military training, or revisionary exercises while Sunday will not be interfered with but will be reserved for private sport or self culture and for recreation. Youth under a stipulated age will not be able to take part in the military exercises. According to this Cabinet's decree work will stop every Saturday at one o'clock but employees have no right to reduce the wages. If they insist on compensation for the half day free on Saturday they must obtain it by lengthening the other working days.

LONDON TUBE
TRAINSDuke Of Kent As Driver

London, June 14.
His Royal Highness the Duke of Kent, in company with Lord Ashfield, Chairman of the London Passenger Transport Board, inspected the London Underground Railway improvements and later drove three tube trains under the new Leicester Square station.

On the first occasion, owing to a delay in applying the brakes, the train slightly overran the station before pulling.
On the second occasion, during the journey from Waterloo, there was an unusual occurrence. A defective train had been brought to a standstill in Goads Street Station and it became necessary for the Duke to halt his train, which was following on the same metals, and switch off the current.

The passengers, who had to alight, were unaware of the fact that the Duke was in charge of their train. The defect, which was repaired in 13 minutes, occurred at a quiet time of the day, and caused only slight inconvenience to travellers.

The journey back to Leicester Square passed without incident. The Duke inspected the new station there and examined the escalators, the working of which was explained.

ENQUIRIES BY
EGYPTIn Italo-Abyssinian
Dispute

(Special to the "Hong Kong Daily Press" (Copyright).)

Milan, June 15.

That discussions are said to have taken place between the Egyptian Premier, Nessim Pasha, and the British High Commissioner, Sir Miles Lampson concerning the Egyptian attitude towards the Italo-Abyssinian conflict, is reported by the "Corriere della Sera," the Egyptian press. The "Corriere" cites the Egyptian paper "Aram" as stating that Nessim Pasha requested from Sir Miles Lampson information on the following points: How would it be possible for England to prevent an Italo-Abyssinian war? Whether, in the event of war, the British Government was contemplating closing the Suez Canal to Italian battleships; whether the British Government intended to prohibit Italian war planes from flying over Egyptian territory and whether Egypt could obtain part of Lake Tana—in Northern Abyssinian and the chief reservoir of the Blue Nile—and if so, under what conditions?

The "Corriere" likewise reproduces a report from the Egyptian paper "Mokatan" according to which the Egyptian Government signified its agreement with the High Commissioner's view, that the restoration of the Egyptian Constitution should be postponed pending further developments in the Italo-Abyssinian dispute.

REVISED PLAN

Reorganisation Of Railroads

New York, June 14.
A revised reorganisation plan for the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul Railroad, providing for control and management by bondholders while bond interest is in arrears, was submitted to the principal institutional investors, holding over $100,000,000 of the railway's bonds to-day.

It is learned the leaders of the railway equipment industry are prepared to submit to President Roosevelt a plan to permit railroads to modernise their equipment on the extended credit basis.

The plan, which is reportedly backed by all leaders in the industry, as well as many carriers, provides for the use of four per cent. ten-year notes, rediscutable by Federal Reserve Banks. The proponents of the scheme estimate that there is $350,000,000 of potential business in rehabilitating the carrier equipment, which would be an enormous aid to employment.

BREAD LAWS IN GERMANY

(Special to the "Hong Kong Daily Press" (Copyright).)

Berlin, June 15.

Only five kinds of bread will be sold in Germany henceforth, under the new law regulating the manufacture and sale of bread, which comes into force to-day and puts an end to the mystifying variety of bread mixtures sold hitherto under all sorts of fancy names, which merely tended to confuse consumers.

From now on each loaf of bread must be stamped with one of five letters, indicating that the bread was made either of coarsely-ground rye, or rye flour, or rye with an admixture of wheat, or wheat with an admixture of rye, or of pure wheat. The minimum weight of loaves is fixed at 264 ounces, so that every German hausfrau will in future know exactly what she is getting for her money.

Special kinds of bread for invalids and persons suffering from diabetes and other diseases are not affected by the regulations, and may be sold as heretofore.

Only the day before we were lunching together.

He was then a little despondent.

But it was a very different Harry who spoke to me on Saturday. "I am overjoyed at the good news," he said. "Di-di" (his pet name for his fiancée) has been the only girl in my life.

PRESIDENT'S DISEASE

Mr. Roosevelt has not only been having trouble with Congress. Hitherto one of the outstanding achievements of his Presidency has been the way he has won the confidence of the Press. His daily conferences with Washington journalists have been remarkable for their friendliness and informality.

Recently, however, some of the older hands among the journalists have detected in him signs of "President's disease." The symptoms, which were strongly developed in such sufferers as President Wilson and President Hoover, are, they say, as follows:

Growing impatience and resentment of criticism.
A feeling that he is being persecuted by men with unworthy motives.
A determination to believe what he wants to believe.

Undigested Peanuts.
One sign of the progress of the malady has been the patient's growing touchiness with regard to "candid camera" pictures of himself.

At the opening of the baseball season the President tried to prevent photographers taking him eating peanuts.

One photographer was successful, however, and Mr. Roosevelt was inundated with letters on the impropriety of Presidents indulging in peanuts.

In future such photographs will be suppressed.

I am told that the statue, the commission of the Dumfries Burns Club, will be erected next month.

R.A.F. RECRUITING
SCENES

Prospective airmen clamoured round the administrative offices of the Air Ministry in Kingsway to-day with all the abandon of youth in search of adventure. They comprised the vanguard—a strange one—or applicants for pilots as pilots and aircraftmen under the R.A.F. recruiting drive. Officials at the Kingsway headquarters had an active afternoon handing out application forms and literature to the continuous stream of young men who monopolised all the indoor standing accommodation and overflowed into pavement queues and conferences.

GUILDHALL BALL GUESTS

(Special Air Mail Service)

London, May 29.

Those who noted the guests at the Guildhall Ball could hardly fail to be impressed by the diversity of the interests represented.

Politics, national and municipal, the services, industry and commerce were included in the Lord Mayor's widely flung net.

It was surprising, therefore, to find that the large private banking houses seem to have been neglected.

LIPTON'S

FACTS YOU SHOULD KNOW

SCIENTIFIC TESTS RECENTLY COMPLETED SHOW THAT AFTER DRINKING TEA THE AMOUNT OF OXYGEN IN THE BLOOD INCREASES UP TO TWENTY PER CENT OR MORE ABOVE NORMAL.

TEA ITSELF DOES NOT SUPPLY OXYGEN—BUT MORE OF THE OXYGEN FROM THE AIR YOU BREATHE IS PICKED UP BY THE BLOOD FROM YOUR LUNGS AND FLOWS THROUGH THE ORGANS OF THE BODY AFTER DRINKING TEA.

WHY DO YOU FEEL LAZY AFTER EATING? BECAUSE, AFTER A MEAL, A LARGE PART OF THE BLOOD IS DRAWN TO THE STOMACH TO AID IN DIGESTION RESULTING IN LESS BLOOD, AND CONSEQUENTLY LESS OXYGEN, REACHING THE BRAIN AND TISSUES.

WHEN YOU HAVE TEA WITH YOUR MEAL THE PROPORTION OF BLOOD GOING TO THE STOMACH AND DIGESTIVE ORGANS REMAINS AS USUAL BUT BECAUSE OF THE HIGHER OXYGEN CONTENT CARRIED BY THE BLOOD CIRCULATING THROUGH THE BRAIN THE LOSS IN BLOOD VOLUME IS COMPENSATED FOR BY THE HIGHER OXYGEN CONTENT, HENCE YOU FEEL ENERGETIC AND ALERT. NO WONDER TEA IS THE MOST POPULAR DRINK IN THE WORLD.

THE LIPTON YELLOW LABEL CANISTER PROTECTS THE DELICATE TEA LEAVES FROM THE GARDENS TO YOUR TABLE PRESERVING FOR YOU THE DELICIOUS FRAGRANCE WHICH IS LOST BY INEXPERIENCED PACKERS. LIPTON'S HAS BEEN PROVEN SIX TIMES AS AROMATIC AS CERTAIN OTHER BRANDS OF TEA.

LIPTON'S YELLOW LABEL TEA HAS THE LARGEST SALE OF ANY BRAND IN THE WORLD—WE CAN THEREFORE CORRECTLY ASSUME IT TO BE THE MOST POPULAR. THIS POPULARITY IS THE RESULT OF LIPTON'S LONG EXPERIENCE IN SELECTING AND PACKING THE MOST FRAGRANT AND TENDER TEA LEAVES FOR DECADES. TRY IT YOURSELF AND BE CONVINCED.

LIPTON'S QUALITY IS UNSURPASSED—THE PRICE COMPETITIVE WITH COMPARABLE QUALITIES. SAVE THE COUPONS FOR FREE TIN.

HONG KONG RIFLE ASSOCIATION

Provisions Of Proposed Rules

In connection with the forthcoming Special General Meeting of the Association, which is to be held on Wednesday evening next, at 5.30 p.m. in the Board-Room of the South China Morning Post, we have been favoured with an advance copy of the draft rules, which are to come up for discussion and consideration at this meeting.

The proposed rules provide that individual members up shall be open to serving and past members of the Regular and Auxiliary Services and to past and present members of any Colonial Volunteer Corps, with the proviso that a past member must have attained military efficiency for at least three years; to members of the Hong Kong Naval Volunteer Force and to serving members of the Hong Kong Police Force, and, with certain reservations, to past members of that body. Individual membership will also be open to those who are employed in Imperial, Government, Colonial, Government or Mercantile Marine Service, whose occupations are such that they would be retained in them in case of emergency.

Provision is also made for the affiliation to the Association of any approved Rifle Club, and as some misconception appears to exist in certain quarters as regards the status and rights of a member of an affiliated Rifle Club, when compared with those of an individual full member, the following statement has been issued by the Honorary Secretary of the Association:

Secretary's Statement

"A member of any Rifle Club, which has been approved by the Council and which has affiliated to the Association, has the right, at those times when range accommodation is available for use by the Association to practice on the open range, on any target not required by full individual members of the Association. He has also the right, of course, to shoot as a member of such affiliated Rifle Club in any individual competition, or team match, which the Association may organise for such affiliated Clubs.

He cannot, however, shoot in any match, or competition, held by the Association for the express benefit of its full members, e.g. Spoon Shoots, which are to be held each month; nor may he take part in any of the events which comprise the local "Bisley" Meeting, unless, and until, he has paid his annual subscription, at the specially reduced rates laid down in Rule 5.

Right to Vote

Only full individual members are entitled to attend, or vote at, any meeting of the Association, and no affiliated member has any right whatsoever to take any part in the affairs of management of the Association; his interests, however, are adequately safeguarded by the provision made, whereby each affiliated Rifle Club, with a membership of twenty-five, or over, has the right to elect one representative to the Council of the Association. Affiliated Rifle Clubs, whose membership is less than twenty-five, have also the right to elect one representative on the Council, who will look after their interests collectively.

The rules also provide that any member of an approved and affiliated Rifle Club, shall be entitled, if he so desires, to join the Association as a full individual member, by paying an annual subscription much below that paid by anyone who is not a member of an affiliated Rifle Club.

Offer of Medals

We understand that at the meeting next Wednesday, an offer will be made of certain medals, to be competed for by the affiliated Rifle Clubs, the winners of which will be eligible to shoot in a special competition, restricted to them only, at the local "Bisley" Meeting next winter.

Immediately after the draft rules of the Association have been passed at the meeting on Wednesday, the enrolment of individual full members, will commence, for which purpose the necessary application forms will be available at the meeting.

NO PASSPORT

For entering the Colony without a valid passport, Mager Singh was on Saturday fined $10 and ordered to be sent back to Swatow from whence he came when he was charged before Mr. Q. A. A. Macfadyen on Saturday at the Central Magistracy.

The defendant had boarded the Hong Kong at Swatow and paid his usual fare but was unable to produce the necessary passport. He was handed over to the police by the Captain upon the ship's arrival at Hong Kong, according to the evidence of the prosecuting officer, Sgt. Russell.

It was also stated that the defendant went to Swatow from Singapore on board a Chinese steamer and it was his intention of going back there now but not having the necessary papers he would not be allowed to land just the same.

PICKPOCKETS CAUGHT

Lau Tso a 14 year old lad was remanded for 48 hours for further enquiries to be made, when he appeared before Mr. Q. A. A. Macfadyen on a charge of theft of a pocket watch and job from Li King Shui, a student at Wah Yai College.

For receiving the watch and job knowing same to have been stolen Tsang Ka, 22 year-old unemployed was sentenced to three months' hard labour.

Inspector Andrew said that the two defendants were watched by a detective in Queen's Road for almost three hours. He saw the youth take the watch from the complainant and hand it over to the other defendant. The detective at once arrested them.

The two defendants, who had only been in Hong Kong for a few days, came from Canton, where, the police alleged, there were convictions recorded against them.

JUST IN CASE

A request to take a serious view of the case against an unemployed Chinese, Liu Chun, who was charged with the possession of a dagger without a licence from the Inspector General of Police, was made by Inspector Fender to Mr. W. Schofield at the Central Magistracy on Saturday.

Inspector Fender stated that on Thursday evening information was received that someone was prowling around on the race-course. At 8 p.m. he entered the Jockey Club, and waited. About 10 p.m. defendant was seen entering the course. Defendant was arrested and, when searched, the dagger was found tucked in his girdle.

In making a statement at the station, defendant said that he secured the dagger in Canton a week ago and as he had been unemployed he intended to do some snatching. The dagger, he stated, was to be made use of if he were chased.

Sentence of nine months' hard labour was inflicted on the defendant.

DUTIABLE CARGO

For the possession of 28 gallons of Chinese wine on which duty had not been paid, Lo Yuen, a stevedore on board the ss. Hunan was fined $500 or in default four months' hard labour when charged before Mr. Q. A. A. Macfadyen at the Central Magistracy on Saturday.

Prosecuting Revenue Officer A. W. Grimmett stated that a similar case had happened on board the same steamer before. In this case Revenue Officer "Ward" had to remove about 30 tons of cargo before the contraband goods were unearthed.

ATTACKED BY A SWORD FISH

In Big Wave Bay

Being attacked by a sword fish while swimming at Big Wave Bay on Saturday night was the harrowing experience which befell Mr. Tong-Po Hing of the Hong Kong Rubber Manufacturing Company who was with a party organised by the Nanyang Chinese Association.

It appears that as Mr. Tong dived off the launch he was immediately attacked by the fish whose sword transfixed his upper arm.

Mr. Tong turned to swim back to the launch, when the fish came again to the attack. Flinging itself right out of the water, it missed Mr. Tong's head by inches and crashed against the side of the boat.

When his companions had helped Mr. Tong on board it was evident that the wound was a severe one, so the launch called in at Shaikwan, where a police ambulance was telephoned for. The ambulance met the launch on arrival at Queen's Pier and conveyed the wounded man to the Government Civil Hospital.

It was learnt subsequently that the wound is not considered serious, but Mr. Tong is being detained for the present.

SCHOOL FOR THE DEAF

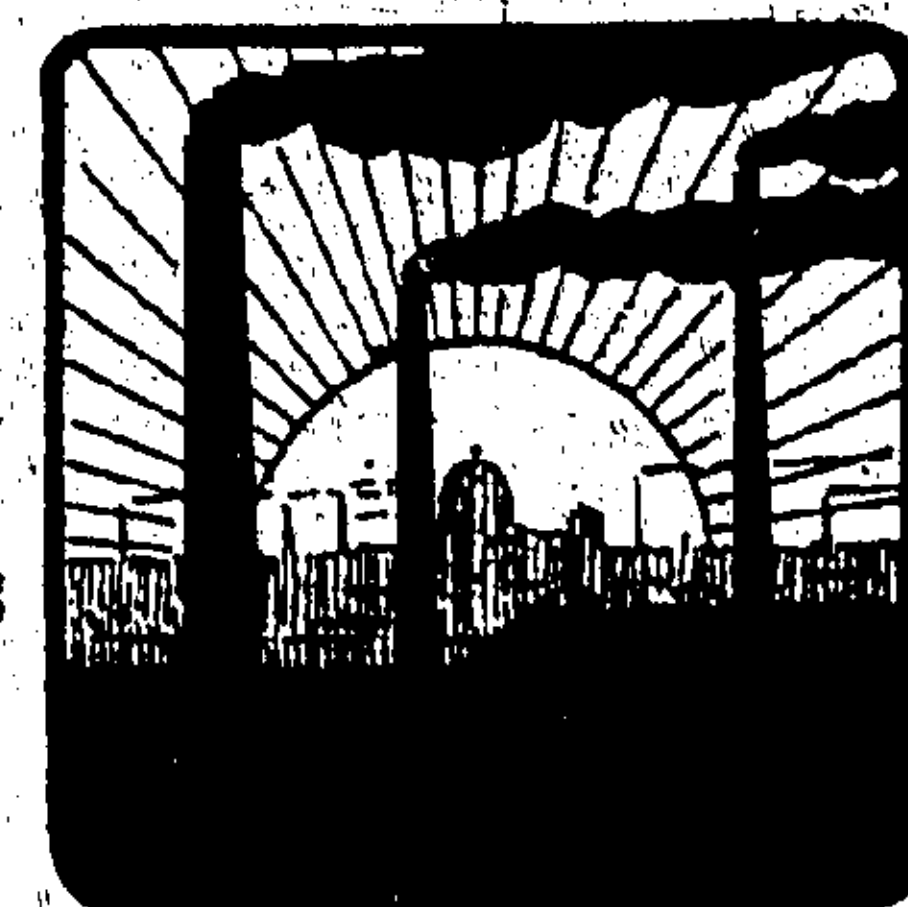

Although Kwangtung and Hong Kong have for some long time had schools for the blind, up till the present no one has seriously considered starting work among the Deaf.

Preparations are, however, now being made in Hong Kong to open a School for Deaf children, and great encouragement has been given to the founders of it by the handsome donation which Mr. Fung Pak Tin has made towards its initial expenses.

Two teachers, graduates of St. Stephen's Girls' College and of Fairfield School, C.M.S., respectively, are now well qualified to take up

SPIN BOWLERS CARRY THE DAY

South Africans In Trouble

(Special Air Mail Service)

London, May 28.

Only a popular visiting side could have attracted 5,000 spectators to Lord's after a morning of drechening rain and chilly wind which put the possibility of play before lunch entirely beyond question. Yet that number was present at two o'clock when the match between the South Africans and Middlesex actually started. By tea-time 3,000 more had passed the turnstiles, and there were still more coming into the ground.

These South Africans are undoubtedly popular, whether it is because they are playing their matches under our new l.b.w. rule (which is a sportsmanlike thing to do), or whether because their batsmen hit hard whenever the least opportunity is presented, or because of the side's general workmanlike appearance in the field, are matters for varying opinion. Probably each of these points has had its influence. Certainly the South Africans achieved a sound and workmanlike performance in scoring 202 against very good Middlesex bowling, and under conditions which must have been far from pleasant for them.

To begin with, Robins beat Wade for the toss, and put the visitors in. They had to bat on a pitch which, though dead enough for a couple of hours or so, was bound to become increasingly difficult under the influence of a sharp breeze. The Middlesex spin bowlers, moreover, were reinforced by the welcome re-appearance of H. G. Owen-Smith, the Oxford and South Africa Test match player.

The South Africans suffered two early disasters in the loss of Wade and Rowan, both stumped by Price in jumping out to Robins, who throughout the innings bowled extremely well. Four wickets were down for 57 runs; but Nourse, Viljoen, Cameron, and Dalton slowly but steadily fought back, and each of them delighted the onlookers with their stroke play.

Everybody wanted to see young Dudley Nourse bat. He did not stay long, but long enough to show his unmistakable quality, and to make the nearest of fine leg-strokes that irresistibly recalled one of his father's most effective strokes. He was Owen-Smith's first victim. The ball rose rather quickly, well up in pitch, and Nourse, attempting a chancy overhead hook, saw the ball well and truly caught by Hearn standing somewhere between mid-on and forward leg.

POWERFUL BACKSTROKES
With Cameron and Dalton together, after Viljoen had got his this kind of instruction, having recently received training for this special work at the School for the Deaf, Chetco.

As it is not easy to know where the deaf children of the locality are to be found, the Committee will be grateful to readers of this paper who know of any such, if they will inform the parents of this new School which will open at the beginning of September.

Application for prospectuses and any further enquiries will be welcomed by the Headmistress, Miss Lee Luk Wa.

legs all at cross purposes to a beautiful spinner from Owen-Smith, there came the best and most valiant batting of the day. Cameron hit Owen-Smith twice in succession for 6 down towards the lavers, and immediately after tea Dalton hit three 4's in next to no time, two of them off Robins—extraordinarily powerful backstrokes, getting the ball away from his legs, and one to the leg-side off Peebles. Cameron made a glorious pull off Robins in one of these overs. In all 30 runs were added in not much more than fifteen minutes.

Suddenly came the day's biggest thrill. Hearn went on with the score at 147 Cameron lashed out at his second delivery and drove the ball at terrific speed towards the lower pavilion rails. Newman ran like a flash five or six yards to intercept it and bring off a catch, a truly amazing catch. The ball struck his thumb, shot straight up to the air, and fell behind the fieldman's neck. A tremendous roar announced that he had caught it. Newman's hand was so severely bruised that a substitute had to take his place in the field.

Dalton stayed to pass his 50. Ninth out, just before the score touched the double-century, he had played an invaluable innings. He was out in the manner characteristic of the methods of the whole side—they are not afraid to run-out to burning balls. Dalton was stumped while trying to drive a sharply spinning ball out of the ground!

TEACHER IN TROUBLE

Magistrate's Kindly Warning

Appearing on remand before Mr. E. I. Wynne-Jones at the Kowloon Magistrate's Court on Saturday, charged with having attempted to obtain G. $60 from Mr. J. J. Gibbons, the pursor of the s.s. Empress of Canada, by saying that he had the authority of Mr. Williamson, a passenger on board the vessel on June 12, George Alexander Gordon, a 22-year-old mathematics teacher of the Cosmopolitan College was bound over in the sum of $250 to come up for judgment within 12 months.

Detective Sub-Inspector L. Whant prosecuted.

Evidence was given by Kuan Kau Wan, the master of the San Lee Chan Timber shop of 360, Canton Road, who stated that at about 11.30 a.m. on June 12, defendant, with another not in custody, came into his timber yard and asked if they could use the phone; he granted them permission. They gave no reason for wanting to use it.

Although they had asked him in Chinese they spoke in a different language on the phone, witness being about four yards away from the phone during the conversation. Three of four different calls were made.

The other man appeared to be a Chinese.

Detective Sub-Inspector Whant, of the Water Police Station, who was in charge of the prosecution, then stated that at 12.20 p.m. on the day in question, as the result of a telephone message, he boarded the R.M.S. Empress of Canada and met the Master at Arms with the defendant near the pursor's cabin. Then three of them proceeded to the former's cabin, where he, the Inspector, searched the defendant's person.

Continuing Sub-Inspector Whant detailed the various articles found in the brief case which included a rubber stamp, an ink pad and some other loose papers bearing various references to people and trade.

"CHARGE IS BASELESS"

Defendant was charged that night, and in answer to the charge of attempting to obtain money by false pretences which was preferred against him, he said: "As far as I am concerned the charge is baseless, as I was acting under instructions of a Mr. Raymond Legaspi, and was not aware of the fact that Mr. Williamson had not had any business transactions with the other party."

After pondering for a few moments whether he should tell his story from the dock or not, the defendant decided to make his statement from the witness box. He began by saying that at about 9.30 a.m. on June 12 Raymond Legaspi came to his place, No. 19, Parkes Street, with the passenger list of the R.M.S. Empress of Canada and pointed out the name of Mr. N. Williamson and asked him, the defendant, to fill in the form, which he did. He was then asked to go to the ship, and together they left the place.

FILIPINO INVOLVED

They went to the San Lee Chan Timber Yard to telephone. He then corroborated the evidence of the ship's messenger and the pursor about the conversations on the telephone. Following this he went aboard, leaving the other person on the wharf. He found the pursor busy, but, after a wait of about five minutes, he presented Legaspi's card and said that it was the one which Mr. Williamson had asked the pursor to pay. The pursor then asked him about the money being in gold dollars, and he replied that the exchange had been fixed by his manager in the office. The Master at Arms then arrived and took the bill, and asked him to follow him. When outside the cabin they were met by S. I. Whant and he was taken to the cabin and searched and then later taken to the Police Station.

When asked about the Mr. Raymond Legaspi, defendant said that he was a Filipino, and he had known him slightly for two years and intimately for about two months. He also knew that he did not work at the Cosmopolitan Advertising Syndicate, as he was at present unemployed and the Syndicate was closed.

Defendant then went on to say that he had formally worked in the C.A.S. as a partner, but in January, after printing the Hong Kong-Shanghai Interport Football programme, the company had closed. He added that he did not know whether Mr. Williamson had any business with the Syndicate at all.

MAGISTRATE'S WARNING

At the conclusion of his statement, defendant said: "I plead guilty to all the charges against me but it is my first criminal offence and I make a humble plea to Your Worship for leniency."

He added that he was born in Hong Kong and that all his brothers were still at school. Mr. Wynne-Jones then said that he quite believed that there was another party involved, but that did not clear the defendant. He then warned him that he was now known to the police and public and that he would be watched closely, and advised him to take the chance given him. Defendant was then bound over.

GOOD YEAR'S WORK

The Yaumati Ferry Company

The annual meeting of shareholders of the Hong Kong and Yaumati Ferry Co. Ltd., was held on Saturday morning and in addressing the gathering the chairman said:

Ladies and Gentlemen, The time fixed for this meeting having already passed, I will call upon the Secretary to read the notice convening this meeting.

The Directors' Report and the Balance Sheet having been in your hands for some time, I will treat them as having been read.

Your Directors regret that they are unable to produce a more favourable balance sheet and to recommend a larger dividend than $1.70 on the preferential shares and $1.20 on the ordinary shares.

The payment of rental and royalties to the Government throughout the year under review has naturally brought down the amount of net earnings as compared with 1933 when these heavy rentals and royalties were not paid to the Government over a period of approximately 14 months.

I am happy to announce that the traffic receipts have not fallen off during the year under review and this is a positive sign that when the business conditions in the Colony return to normal, the Company's receipts will vastly improve.

JUNE WEEK

The reduction in the fares of the River Steamers have naturally assisted in keeping up these receipts. During the recent Jubilee celebrations, the services carried on most four times their normal traffic. On the second day thousands of troops were conveyed across the harbour on five special ferry vessels in addition to this heavy traffic. Great credit is due to the staff both ashore and afloat for the very creditable manner in which all arrangements were carried out so smoothly.

You will notice that the Bank overdraft is also slightly higher, but I am glad to say that the amount of the overdraft has been very considerably reduced and is to-day under $400,000.00.

During the past few months your Directors have been negotiating with the Government on the matter of the franchise and I am happy to announce that these have now been brought to a successful conclusion and we are indebted to the Government for its kind and sympathetic co-operation and assistance.

As from the 1st June this year we are operating the Jordan Road Service on a new time table which will give the coxswains more time to bring their vessels into the berth, and arrangements have been made whereby 3 vehicle ferry vessels will operate almost daily on the Jordan Road Route thus providing an unbroken and regular service across the harbour.

During the year under review the management was offered a small double ended ferry vessel at a very reasonable cost and accordingly added this vessel to the fleet which now contain 24 ferry vessels as well four lighters and junks.

FURTHER VESSELS

The Directors have in accordance with the wishes of the Government and in order to meet the growing vehicle traffic taken ad-

His Excellency and Lady Southern, accompanied by the personal staff, drove to Fanling Lodge where they will spend the week-end.

LIFE BOAT CRASHES

When lowering a lifeboat on the s.s. President Jackson, in an attempt to save the life of an unknown Chinese who jumped overboard while mentally deranged at 10.45 on Saturday morning, when the vessel was about 80 miles from the Colony, an accident occurred which might easily have cost seven men their lives.

It appears that when the boat was approximately half-lowered the rope suddenly slipped, and the boat crashed the remaining 20 feet to the water. The force of the impact was terrific, the result being that the craft was reduced almost to matchwood.

The injured men were removed to the Kowloon Hospital immediately the President Jackson arrived in Hong Kong.

In view of the very favourable rate of exchange to place orders with the Hong Kong and Whampoa Dock Company, for another motor driven Vehicular Ferry Vessel which will be completed and ready for service in the early part of 1936.

We are again indebted to our Bankers, The Hong Kong & Shanghai Banking Corporation, for its invaluable assistance during the past year. They have now assured us of sufficient funds to cover the cost of the new vessel.

For the purpose of auditing the traffic receipts and the amount of royalty payable to the Government the Directors have appointed Mr. J. A. Martin A.S.A.A. to take over the work.

The Dividend warrants are ready and may be collected from the Company's offices on Monday.

THE WATER SUPPLY

Welcome Relief

Between the hours of midnight on Friday and 6 a.m. on Saturday, Hong Kong benefited to the extent of 4.85 inches of rain from the thunderstorm which broke over the Colony in the early hours of the morning.

From 4 to 5 a.m. no less than 2.74 inches of rain fell which represents the heaviest fall as far in 1935. Heavier falls had been recorded in the past and this does not, in any way, constitute a record. 3.96 inches were recorded in an hour's fall on July 19, 1928.

Many places in Hong Kong and the Mainland were transformed into quagmires to the heavy rains which had brought down with it mud and silt from the hill tops. Mountin looked like a mud of sea from Cherry Hill spreading to Waterloo Road, Dundas Street, Fa Yuen Street, Tung Choi Street, Kwong Wah Street, Pitt Street and Nathan Road.

Low lying areas in Happy Valley and Causeway Bay were also in about the same state and street cleaners were early on the job sweeping and cleaning away the mud. Great inconvenience was caused to residents of these districts.

TWO CASUALTIES

During the height of the storm, a sampan capsized in Causeway Bay Shelter, with, it is reported, the loss of two lives.

A 10-ton boulder crashed down the hillside at Kennedy Town, but no serious damage is reported.

Sons 50 to 100 tons of earth and rock fell down from the hillside into Quarry Bay Road, east of Quarry Bay School, blocking the tramlines. At 8 o'clock coolies from the P.W.D. were busy clearing the debris and an hour later the trams were able to get through.

A Chinese woman is reported to have disappeared from a sampan, No. 3373, anchored off Kowloon Bay, at 4.30 in the morning, during the storm. Although there were three people on board at the time it is not known what happened to her, and it is surmised that she must have fallen overboard accidentally.

DR. TWEDDELL

Was Under A Specialist

(Special Air Mail Service)

London, May 28.

Mr. W. Lawson Little, the American University student, won the golf amateur final yesterday by defeating Dr. Tweddell, the Stourbridge ex-holder, by one up, and so held his championship—the only American ever to win it twice in successive years; the only golfer to do it since Hilton, thirty-four years ago; and only the third to perform the feat in the championship history.

But if Little won, the hero of the day was Tweddell. Nearly old enough to be Little's father, he gave the champion the hardest game he has ever had in this country.

And he was a sick man at that. He had a bad bout of flu in February and a second one last month.

A specialist gave the verdict. "Complete rest and quietness with sea air for a month."

Dr. Tweddell went away. After a spot of fresh air on the Yorkshire moors he went on to St. Annes-on-Sea, and yesterday was the sequel.

"MY REST"

"This," he said after the game, "is my rest." It is the last week of his convalescence, and I feel much better.

"In fact, thanks to my wife, I am thoroughly fit again. She has massaged me, tucked me in bed early each night, and generally acted as nurse to me."

"The result was that Little and I had a great fight and I feel just as thrilled as if I had won."

"Naturally, I expect a bit of mental reaction next week, but there is no doubt that this championship has bucked me up wonderfully. The thought that I put up a good fight against one of the finest American golfers has been a real tonic."

MRS. TWEDDELL TALKS And here is what his nurse, Mrs. Tweddell, had to say. "I feel as proud as if I had won the championship, myself," she told the "Sunday Pictorial" over the telephone.

"We go back to Stourbridge (where the doctor practises) to-

Given even a modicum of luck, Dr. Tweddell might have won.

Time and again his putts hit the hole and didn't sink. Two halves in particular would have been won nine times out of ten. On the other hand, Mr. Little's ball made for the hole each time as though it was a kind of natural resting place.

HONG KONG, JUNE 17, 1935.

TECHNICAL EDUCATION

We have had, from time to time, letters and articles in the papers, all urging for "something to be done for the poor children of the Colony." In fairness to the people responsible, it must be said that the Colony has very definite reasons to be satisfied with the progress that has been made in this direction. There is the Industrial School at Aberdeen and something similar, on a much smaller scale, of course, at Caroline Hill, namely the Junior Technical School. The St. Louis Industrial School too, has done much good work so that it will be seen that the poor boys are well catered for. Insofar as the well-to-do people are concerned, there is the University where the most modern methods of teaching are followed, and as for those who do not desire a University education there are many excellent schools such as Queen's College, La Salle College, Diocesan Boys' School and King's College etc. But what of the middle class parent who wishes to give his children some technical education but cannot afford to send them on to the University? There are many who are so placed and it is to be deplored that these people, who form the majority of the working classes, should be denied the opportunity so essential for the future generation just because Hong Kong will not do more than make a pretence at being a modern city.

This defect does not, of course, affect those people who do not have their homes permanently in Hong Kong but there are many Chinese, Indians, Portuguese and other families who have been here for generations and who have not the slightest intention of changing their abode and since they may, with perfect justification claim Hong Kong as their own, where they spend all their money surely they are entitled to something in return?

It would be a good idea if the Government were to start a technical school for the middle classes, and one way to help would be to start an endowment fund for scholarships. There are many public spirited members of the community, we feel, who would be only too glad to lend assistance in this direction and if the scheme is carried out, the Government will have the eternal gratitude of the whole of the community in general and the middle class parent in particular.

CHINA NAVY
MUTINYCanton Steamers
Suspended

Following the example set last year by their fellowmen, three further naval ships belonging to Nanking mutinied and came down South, one of them being the flagship. They are Hai Chi, Chao Ho and Hai Shen.

Their intention to join the Canton Naval Naval Forces suddenly reverted to loyalty to the Nanking Government by the officers on board in consequence of which strict orders were given by the Canton Government to fire on them should they attempt to set sail. The forces from Chinese forts on the banks of the narrow channel of Boega Tigris are watching the ships every movement intently lest they should give them the slip.

A message not quite intelligible was the first inkling Hong Kong got of the affair in Canton and the police at once got in touch with the Naval authorities who immediately wirelessed to H.M.S. Taranula which is anchored off Shamen. Reply came back soon to the effect that all was once more quiet in Canton and the trouble referred to must have concerned the Boega Tigris affair. On Saturday night the Tung On and the Lung Shan were held up

LOCAL NEWS IN BRIEF

AUDACIOUS BURGLARY

Not satisfied with taking away clothing and other articles from the room, a thief or thieves coolly walked off with the key to the servants' quarters of No. 1 Tak Shing Street, first floor on Saturday morning.

In a report to the police Mr. Herman Koerner stated that the burglary was committed at about 2.15 a.m. when it is surmised that the thief entered the ground floor by climbing up an iron window grille and entered Mr. Koerner's room by passing through the window where he coolly picked and chose his "fancy" from the room including clothing and other articles to the value of about $55. While all this was going on Mr. and Mrs. Koerner were sleeping in the room and were totally unaware of the happening.

The perpetrator or perpetrators of the crime walked off with the key to the servants' quarters through their room.

DOG BITES

After having bitten several people whom the police are trying to trace, a black and white dog, believed to be a cross breed between a chow dog and a European dog, was shot through the head by a police Reservist at Hungnam at about 10.45 a.m. yesterday after it had bitten two persons there on the spot.

Strongly suspected of being a rabid dog, the difficulty of confirming it is made the more harder due to the gun shot being on the head.

A description of the dog has been circulated by the police as a warning to persons who have been bitten by the animal and up to the present three persons have identified the dog as being their assailant.

Another Case

Three Chinese, Chung Yau, a stone-breaker, Tsang Cheung, also a stone-breaker, and Mo Tai, a married woman were all sent to the Kowloon Hospital on Saturday after having been bitten by a dog.

It appears that the people were inside a matchbox at Matauk, Kowloon City, when a brown and white spotted dog entered their abode and bit the inmates savagely. All three were unable to run away quick enough and after the attack the dog immediately bolted and was not seen again despite the keen search made by the police.

MOTOR ACCIDENT

While driving private car No. 2824 along Cornwall Road, Kowloon, Mrs. E. K. Sequeira, a learner driver who was accompanied by Mr. F. A. Gill at the time, met with an accident.

In a report made to the police Mrs. Sequeira stated that as she was turning into Kent Road, the car skidded and before she could right it, it had already mounted the pavement. The car came to a halt in front of No. 20 Kent Road, damaging the railings, in front of the house.

The car also suffered slight damage to the front. The accident occurred at about 5 p.m. on Saturday.

LAST NIGHT RAINS

After a respite of more than 24 hours, the torrential rains suddenly caught Hong Kong again last night shortly after 10 p.m.

Accompanied by thunder and lightning, it rained heavily incessantly for over 30 minutes. Many pedestrians were caught in the rains and several small landslides were reported. Inquiries made at the Observatory revealed that from 10 a.m. to 10.30 p.m. yesterday the total rainfall registered was 0.70 inches and from 10 a.m. on Saturday to 10 a.m. yesterday it registered only 0.01.

ANOTHER ACCIDENT

A Mr. Stewart who was driving a private car along Tai Po Road yesterday near the Kowloon reservoir met with a nasty accident. The road was made slippery by the rain, and the car skidded into a wall and turned a somersault into a nullah.

Mr. Stewart was severely injured and was picked by another car which took him to hospital.

and the latest developments are keenly awaited. In the meantime a warning has been issued to all British vessels not to set sail for Canton and if they do they would be doing it at their own risk.

If Gossip We Must

(BY "PRUDENCE").

"The Song Of Shek-O"
When breakers climb the rocks
With silver-flashing foam
Through spume and spray
We sport and play
And scramble up the comb
Of a shoreward-rolling wave,
And there's no such joy for me
As a breathless fight
With a green-clad Knight
From the armies of the Sea

Yes... this IS the gossip column... and I DON'T apologise for breaking into verse... If you want to know why, you must ask the children who went to the lovely party given by Mrs. M. H. Turner and Betty and Beryl Fair last Saturday at "Wits End."

It was some party I assure you, for Betty and Beryl are adored by all the children who go to the Kiddies Riding School, and no wonder... Few girls in the Colony work harder than they, but they feel rewarded by the wonderful progress made by their pupils.

One has only to see the children cantering with folded arms, taking the jumps, and controlling their ponies in masterly style, to know that they are being taught in the right way. But I am straying away from the subject of the party... Wits End is a most attractive house; very modern and "streamline" within, it stands in a commanding position on the edge of the cliffs above Big Wave Bay, where there is a delightful garden in the making, and a wonderful view of the hills and the sea.

Bathing-kits was the wear on Saturday, for Wits End provides swimming of the most thrilling description. Mrs. Turner has planned a wonderful diving platform above a little cove known as "Wits Pool." It is reached by a narrow path down the cliff and in this sheltered cove one can dive straight down into forty feet of deep blue sea, and ride back again on the heavy swell that pushes up the picturesque rocks of the pool.

FOR EXPERTS ONLY
This sort of thing is for experts only, but there seemed to be quite a number last Saturday. Led by Beryl and Betty (who swim as well as they ride) the bigger children were on their mettle. Helen Sanger as leader did some wonderful dives. Little Barbara Hazel is a wonderful diver too and can swim like a fish. Pam Turnbull (with her mop of flaming hair) preferred to jump, sometimes curled in a ball, sometimes a straight jump that took her away down out of sight. Marygold Sorby has a long easy stroke very pretty to watch. Leslie Womack arrived with a heavily bandaged knee and could only limp about and watch rather wistfully from the rocks.

All the smaller children went off to Big Wave Bay in charge of Mrs. Hampden Ross and Mrs. Dick Sanger where they had a grand time rioting over the smooth sands and through the shallow waters of the prettiest bay in the Colony. SANDY SEA-URCHINS

Then came tea indoors and it was amusing to see all these sandy little sea-urchins turn into dainty children again. Wendy Joseph, a dark-eyed fairy in a dress threaded with satin ribbons, Angela Hampden-Ross, sedate and serious in white. Helen Tracy gay and sparkling in pink. Small Eleanore Sanger, enjoying everything. Pat Stellingwerf, always ready for a romp and Peter with that twinkle in his eye. Alan Prior with a very grown-up air, dainty Virginia Jenkinson, sturdy little Michael Stewart, and Mrs. Cross's small daughter who has such lovely rosy cheeks that it is hard to believe she has been living in the hottest part of India. Another honoured guest was "Marmaduke" the lame sparrow which had a broken leg and is now so tame it will perch on Beryl's finger, and make friends with anyone who feeds it with crumbs.

It was a grand party, and when I left they were still playing wild games of "Twos and threes" and "Prisoners Base" on the lawn. This is quite a week of parties and birthdays. Wendy Joseph has hers at Repulse Bay, this afternoon, and Marygold Sorby is giving a party at Tiger Bay tomorrow... and then there is the Cocktail Party on board H.M.S. Suffolk... that alas is a farewell affair before the start for Home with that priceless cargo of Chinese Art Treasures. It will be a marvellous evening I know, for the officers of H.M.S. Suffolk definitely know just how to throw a party! I am terribly disappointed I must miss it.

"PRUDENCE" DEPARTED
(BY "ONLOOKER").
Alas, our Gossip Writer-in-Chief—Prudence has departed for a long spell of Home leave. We shall miss the fruit of her fluent pen not a little. Let us hope that she will, occasionally remember us in London, and write and tell us about all the "Lovelies" there. Your "Onlooker" has that distressing habit of going about in a complete dream, with her head buried in a newspaper. On Saturday she boarded a ferry, and laden to the teeth with her own shopping, library books, a mackintosh, an umbrella, and last, but not least, a small offering for the departing Prudence she wound her weary way past all the perilous overhead menaces, the trucks, lorries, railway lines, and all the other incumbrances of Kowloon Wharf to the very end, and still there was no sign of the Rajputana. The unheard of thing had happened, she was not alongside at all, and everybody, but the blind Onlooker had seen her in mid-stream all the while!

Well it was too late to go on board then, so the disconsolate number two Gossip Writer took a rickshaw and tried to find the new flat of a friend. This turned out to be no easy job. Having asked several Europeans, quantities of Chinese, and one Sikh policeman, who, none of them, had the faintest idea where Carnarvon Building was; the block eventually hove in sight with the name in large letters over the door. What joy to sink into the most comfortable sofa in Asia at last, and have some stimulating conversation (and some orange juice) with the most interesting person in town. We talked of this, and that, and the other, including the great Douglas Fairbanks who has just passed through here. I gathered he is as full of charm in the flesh, as he is on the screen; which is satisfactory. It is so awful to have all one's illusions shattered by a celebrity who falls short of one's expectations. Apparently Mr. Fairbanks and Lady Ashley saw "The Great Barnum" when they were here, and greatly enjoyed it. Those entrancing dwarfs really are "little people" and not children made up, and the picture is just as wonderful as the advertisements tell us, this time.

ISLAND BAY
I went to Shek-O in the course of the week, and had a bathe at Island Bay. Heavens, how it has changed! Brighton isn't in it. Even on a week day there were rows and rows of tents, a Kiosk, and a sea full of bathers. In spite of all these new beaches being opened up, the crowds seem to get bigger and bigger; and I am more and more thankful that I have my little unknown retreat to bask in, undisturbed, at the week-end.

A GOOD WASH

All the local lovelies are bent on becoming more lovely still. They flock to a certain room in the Hotel, where a "positive" miracle worker, one Miss Moore gives advice and treatment for their complexions. One goes in feeling but a poor thing, and comes out on the crest of a wave, feeling incredibly clean, and with a brand new make-up into the bargain. That's my experience anyway. A local husband's tribute was rather sweet, as he looked at his wife's glowing countenance. "You look as if you'd had a good wash," was his comment.

The question of Major-General Foulds retaining his post is problematical at the moment.

CHINA AT THE CRISIS OF FATE

Forty Years Ago And To-day

Sir Frederick Whyte Views The Situation

London, June 16.

China is at the crisis of fate and confronts it alone, declares Sir Frederick Whyte writing in the "Observer." Forty years ago she was saved from partition by the jealousies of five Great Powers, each trying to prevent others from gaining too great an advantage. To-day there is but one Power actually in the field and China must rely only on her own capacity of passive resistance and racial tenacity.

Far-sighted Chinese will read their own lesson in this hour of fate and will resolve, however long it may take, that they must put their house in order and give the Chinese State power through self-discipline so that it may survive.

America and Great Britain are faced with a crisis demanding a positive policy. If we recognise that Japan has no course but seek relief from pressure at home by expansion abroad, we cannot censure the present method of expansion unless we can show there is a practical alternative, and that alternative is economic access to foreign markets. If we cannot offer such access we inevitably clamp down pressure on Japan which will find an outlet with increasing force in the direction of China.—Reuter.

Peiping, June 15.

Well-informed Japanese deny that 200 Japanese civilians accompanied the troops last night, stating that only a few came.

However, there is no question that Peiping is unusually full of Japanese visitors to-day, the reason for which is not apparent.

General Yuh Sueh Chung, the official to whom the Japanese chiefly objected in Hopei, left to-day with his headquarters staff for Shensi; his troops will be following shortly.

Peiping is very busy, the railway carrying its capacity of traffic, as the twenty-fifth and second divisions of the Government troops are also evacuating in accordance with the Japanese demands.—Reuter.

TIENSIN CALM

Tientsin, June 15.

The tension which gripped the city on Thursday completely disappeared to-day, despite further Japanese expeditions in the Chinese city this afternoon and the sham street fighting in the Japanese concession this morning. During this morning's manoeuvres many streets were closed to vehicles and pedestrians, and apart from occasional bursts of machine-gun fire there was little sign of military activity.

This afternoon a party of five Japanese officers, on horseback, visited the Chinese city, while two Japanese armoured cars filled with soldiers made a tour of the city, neither event creating more than passing comment.—Reuter.

TROOP INCURSIONS

Tientsin, June 16.

Incursions of Japanese troops into the Chinese City continued to-day when an armoured car and three motor trucks with soldiers made a tour of the main streets and gathered later outside the headquarters of the District Kuomintang, while a Japanese plane reconnoitred in the direction of Peiping.

Reports are circulating here that a Japanese armoured train from Shanhaikuan reached the banks of the Shihke but had not yet crossed to the west. It is believed that no soldiers are aboard.—Reuter.

GEN. HO SILENT

Nanking, June 15.

General Ho Ying Ching refused to comment on the North China situation, but promised a statement when a suitable opportunity occurred.

A large gathering of prominent officials went to Pukow to welcome him. Some civilians carried banners praising the War Minister's service to his country.

Mr. Wang Ching Wei and Gen. Ho Ying Ching drove together to Mr. Wang's residence, where they were closeted for about 40 minutes.

It is understood that Gen. Ho Ying Ching reviewed the developments leading to the present crisis. Later he received a stream of official visitors at his own residence, including the Secretary-General of the Central Executive Council, Mr. Yieh Chu Chang.

It is at present uncertain when Gen. Ho will return to Peiping.—Reuter.

CHINA STUDENT MEETING

Luncheon In London

London, June 15.

Mr. Quo Tai Chi, Chinese Ambassador in London, to-day gave a luncheon to the members of the Universities' Chinese Committee, on the occasion of the meeting to adopt the annual report, which shows that there are now 35 Chinese indemnity students in the British Universities and 24 more coming in August.

The Universities' Chinese Committee keeps in close touch with Chinese students in England through its officers and has been most useful to them in many ways during the past year. It has given £780 in studentships to Chinese and £500 to assist in the placing of Chinese engineering apprentices in British engineering works.

The U.C.C. also spends £3,000 a year in maintaining two professorships and two readerships in Chinese at the Universities of Oxford, Cambridge, London, and Manchester, where much useful work is being done, although at Manchester there has been a drop in pupils, as Lancashire firms have temporarily ceased the recruiting of men for the Far East.

The China Institute in Gower Street, chiefly maintained by the U.C.C., increases rapidly in popularity as a centre for Chinese students. It has a capacity which is heavily taxed.—Reuter.

DUTCH NATIVE RUBBER

Scale Of Export Duty Levy

Batavia, June 15.

The Government intends to levy a fiscal export duty on estate rubber varying according to the Batavia market price of standard sheet as follows:—

When the market price is below 17 cents per half kilo no duty, 17 but under 18 cents one-half cent per half kilo, 18 but under 20 cents one cent, and for every price cent rise over 20 cents it will be an additional one-quarter cent duty per half kilo.

A proportional part out of the receipts from export duty on native rubber will be transferred to public funds.—Reuter.

Note: The proposal reflects premier Colijn's frequently expressed desire to raise additional revenue from rubber as soon as circumstances are propitious.

BANKING LAW IN MANCHUKUO

CENTRE OF INTEREST

Peiping, June 14.

A detachment of three hundred Japanese troops arrived here from Tientsin at 8.30 p.m. to replace the present garrison, which is expected to depart in a few days.

AMBASSADORS PRESENT CREDENTIALS

Shanghai, June 15.

Sir Alexander Cadogan, presenting his credentials to-day to Mr. Lin Sen, President of the Executive Yuan, as Britain's first Ambassador to China, becomes the fourth Ambassador accredited to China, the others being successively the Soviet Italian and Japanese Ambassadors.

The Japanese Ambassador presented his credentials on Friday. As he drove into the courtyard of the National Government building, a Chinese band played the Japanese national anthem.

Mr. Ariyoshi later characterised the ceremony as "the crystallisation of the mutual respect and goodwill existing between the two countries."—Reuter.

NEW WORK EOUND FOR TERRITORIALS

London, June 15.

At the request of the Army Council, eight London battalions of the Territorial Army have agreed to conversion into anti-aircraft defence units.

An indication that this step was under consideration was given in the House of Commons, last March by Mr. Douglas Hacking. He then said certain territorial field units have been asked to become anti-aircraft brigades and battalions of engineers etc.

The units will be trained for defence of the London area.—British Wireless.

NAVAL DISCUSSIONS IN LONDON

Prospect Of Agreement Welcomed

London, June 15.

The Anglo-German naval experts held a further meeting at the Admiralty to-day and continued the examination of the German naval proposals.

Probably another formal meeting will be held on Monday.—Reuter.

TECHNICAL MATTERS

London, June 14.

Herr von Ribbentrop and other members of the German Naval Mission who returned to London yesterday, were received by the Foreign Secretary, Sir Samuel Hoare this morning, and later in the day there were individual exchanges of views between them and members of the British Delegation on certain technical matters.

The British delegation will meet to-morrow and a formal joint meeting of the two delegations will be held later.

The form of the ultimate agreement that may be expected to emerge from the recent discussions remains to be settled. It is understood that the basis of it will be an arrangement, whereunder German construction would be limited to 35 per cent of the British naval strength, calculated in categories in dependent ships subject to such latitude as may seem necessary; and also that the ratio would not be subject to disturbance by any action of other powers or by any future change in the German status.

FIXED AND ABIDING

It will be recalled that Herr Hitler in his Reichstag speech, when defining German naval demands, declared that for Germany this 35 per cent ratio was fixed and abiding.

DEFENCE OF THE FRANC

Stern Measures In France

(Special to the "Hong Kong Daily Press" (Copyright).)

Paris, June 15.

A grave warning to "quarters attempting to sabotage the Government's measures for the defence of the franc" has been issued by the Government.

An official announcement declares that M. Laval is firmly determined not to let pass any action which might jeopardise the Government task of safeguarding the currency, and it points out that the powers given to the Government are sufficient to prevent a continuation of the manoeuvres of those who are trying to oppose the action to save the franc.

It is said in well-informed quarters that the Government in a Cabinet session next week will decide to introduce various important measures, which will be published as soon as Parliament has adjourned for the period of the Parliamentary recess.

June 28 is mentioned as the most probable date when the present session of Parliament will end.—Transocean Kuo Min.

FOURTEEN KILLED IN TRAIN CRASH

Midnight Tragedy In Herefordshire

London, June 15.

At least ten were killed and many injured in a midnight train crash at Welwyn Garden City Station, Herefordshire, when a parcels express dashed into the rear of the King's Cross to Newcastle passenger express standing at the station. Doctors and nurses have been rushed to the scene from King's Cross, but rescue work is hampered by the absence of illumination, the carriages receiving the full force of the impact and being practically reduced to matchwood.—Reuter.

London, Later.

The death roll in the train crash was fourteen including five women and two babies in arms, while between 50 to 60 were injured.

Terrible scenes were witnessed after the crash and the groans of the injured in the darkness added to the horror of the disaster.

Aided by the flames of acetylene lamps, the rescue parties hacked away at the wreckage in frenzied attempts to rescue those pinned underneath. Scores of voluntary helpers, attracted to the scene by the noise of the explosion, assisted the doctors and nurses and rescued the survivors who were rushed to hospital in ambulances and private cars.—Reuter.

WORST SINCE 1928

London, June 16.

It is officially stated that fourteen so far are known to have been killed and thirty injured in the train smash which was the worst in Britain since the Charnfield disaster in 1928. Twelve bodies have been recovered.

Eye-witnesses declare that the first train which was the second portion of the 10.45 p.m. King's Cross to Newcastle express had just left the station and crossed from the side line to the main line travelling at about 20 miles an hour, while the parcels express, which also had a few passengers, was estimated to be travelling at 70 miles an hour. An official stated that the first train should not have stopped at the station.

Though rescue work is still proceeding feverishly, the main line was still blocked at 11 a.m. When dawn broke the appalling picture of splintered woodwork and twisted metal presented itself. The main line traffic, now being diverted via the Cuffley loop line.—Reuter.

LAWRENCE WINS THE SPRINT EVENT

At First Swimming Gala

Favoured by ideal weather, keen competition characterised the first gala night of the Victoria Recreation Club on Saturday and which was a great success in every way. A vast improvement in the standard of the swimming was shown especially by the younger swimmers.

Some very close finishes were witnessed and in the 100 yards championship a great race was swum between W. Lawrence and Yau Mang Hong of the Canton Aquatic Sports Club in which Lawrence only beat the latter by 2 1/2 yards in the last ten yards of the race. Lawrence returned the creditable time of 58 2-5 secs.

E. Marques did well in winning the 100 yards Breast Stroke open by returning the excellent time of 75 secs.

The Victoria Recreation Club won the 300 Yards Medley Relay (back, breast and free styles) comfortably. Lionel Roza-Perera, the former Colony champion, giving the V.R.C. a substantial lead in the backstroke, which Marques improved in the breast. The outstanding achievement, however, was performed by Lawrence, who romped home an easy winner, covering the 100 Yards Free Style in 58 3-5 seconds.

CHAMPION OVERSHADOWED

P. Remedios, who was conceded 35 seconds in the 100 Yards Free Style for Boys, was one of the smallest swimmers ever to grace the V.R.C. pool, and he gave a remarkable exhibition of the crawl only his short stroke preventing him from winning the event.

In the exhibition diving, Ed Da Roza, the Colony champion, was by no means impressive. He was completely over shadowed by S. H. Wong, of the Chinese Bathing Club, who gave a remarkably good all-round performance, his one-and-a-half somersault full-standing geyser, half-geyser and "Flying Dutchman" being excellent effort.

THE WATER POLO

An amusing water-polo game between two Club teams including visitors, brought the aquatic programme to a conclusion.

Following the gala, over 300 people indulged in dancing to the strains of "The Troubadours."

Souvenirs of the evening's sport were presented to the winners of the various events by Miss Doris Hunt, following which Mr. F. W. T. Ross, Vice-Chairman of the V.R.C. thanked the swimmers of the Canton Aquatic Sports Club and the Chinese "Y" for competing.

THE C.R.C.

Good attendance, favoured the first "Gala" night of the Chinese Bathing Club on Saturday when the many events were brought to a successful conclusion with a water polo game between the Club and the Royal Navy which the Chinese won, by three goals to one.

The Invitation Relay Race was carried off by the Chinese Bathing Club without much opposition.

In the water polo game the sailors were not so fast as the first half, by good positioning and passing, kept the Chinese from scoring. In the second half, however, they were often caught out of position.

Fasey, in the Navy goal, played well, but made two mistakes which cost goals. Chan Chan Hing and Chan Chee Man (2) scored for the Chinese, while Willows obtained the Navy's point.

After the swimming the prizes were distributed by General Chan Ming Shu.

THE TENNIS LEAGUE

To-day's Big Game

The best Mixed Doubles League Tennis to date should be seen to-day on the C.R.C. ground when the home team is entertaining the U.S.R.C. last year's champions.

This tussle had long been awaited, due to the fact that the Chinese literally swamped the strong K.C.C. "A" by 8 sets to 1. To-day they will not be having so much in the say as the U.S.R.C. possesses about the best lady talents in local tennis. Coupled with it they have the champion mixed doubles players in L. Goldman and Miss Hancock.

To retain their title, U.S.R.C. must win and a lot will have to depend on Goldman and his partner.

In the other encounter the Kowloon C.C. "A" should win comfortably in their return encounter against their "B" team.

On Tuesday four interesting "A" Division games are scheduled to take place, the champions, the C.R.C. meeting the Hong Kong Cricket Club at Causeway Bay, while an exciting struggle should ensue between the K.C.C. and U.S.R.C. at King's Park.

LAWN BOWLS

Three Open Rink Games

Despite the heavy condition of the greens which have not quite recovered from the heavy rains of Saturday, three matches in the Open Rink Championship were decided yesterday when taken as a whole it was a favourite day.

At the Recreio Green, a Craighengower rink skipped by U. M. Omar with J. Cavanagh, B. W. Bradbury and H. Beer defeated the K.C.C. rink skipped by R. P. Phillips with E. Gittins, E. Kern and N. J. Bebbington by 25 shots to 17.

The winners secured a five on the seventh head, a four and two thirds, while the losers had a four and a three.

Two C.C.C. Rinks

Two rinks composed of players from Craighengower Cricket Club met at the Talkoo Green. A. A. Razack, M. A. R. Souza, A. S. Gomes with D. Rumjahn as skip defeated a rink composed of G. Duncan, C. S. Summons, W. Gill and E. el Arculli as skip by 20 shots to 15.

It was a very even game and keenly contested from beginning to end. At the 14th head Rumjahn's rink was three shots to the good. A. S. Gomes played a very inspiring game for the winners while Rumjahn was a shade better than Arculli.

Indians' Success

The I.R.C. rink, D. M. Khan, S. O. Bux, M. Y. Adal and A. R. Dallah had the better of T. F. Stainton, D. B. Bone, R. Wright and J. Watson by 25 shots to 12. Dallah's rink played a better and much superior game and excellent support was forthcoming from his men. They scored a six on the 5th head.

Saturday's Games

Due to the heavy rain on Saturday, all greens were reported unplayable in consequence of which no league games were played.

This Week's Games

Several good ties are promised for this week in the second round of the Open Singles Bowls Championship which is scheduled to be completed by Thursday.

D. Rumjahn, last year's finalist, is meeting his Club mate and partner in the pairs, E. el Arculli, and this game ought to produce bowls of a high standard. Rumjahn on form ought to account for Arculli who is not playing good bowls this year.

R. Basa and J. C. Brown match will also be closely contested and the odds are slightly in favour of the Craighengower man.

F. J. Jones will be playing against A. S. Gomes and as these two players' standard is about equal, another keen game is assured.

WYATT WINS THE TOSS

Scores A Century And Beats Long Standing Record

London, June 15.

The first of the series of test matches between England and South Africa opened at Trent Bridge, Nottingham, to-day when only two thousand people were present to see Bobby Wyatt, the England captain, win the toss and elect to bat on a wicket that was firm and that was likely to be on the fast side. The weather was fine, and the omission of Bell, who had been one of their most successful bowlers so far, from the South Africa side caused a great deal of discussion.

Wyatt not only started off well for his side by winning the toss, but he also went on to score 149 runs before being caught at short-leg. Together with Maurice Leyland, he put up a new record for the fourth wicket partnership which realised 139 runs, beating the previous best (122 runs) set up by Hayward and Hill in Johannesburg as long ago as 1895-6.

First Test At Trent Bridge

Wyatt went out to open England's innings with Herbert Sutcliffe, hero of many a Test innings as his partner, and they started off by playing cautious cricket, though runs came at quite a good rate, the first ten minutes seeing 9 runs being signalled. Sutcliffe claimed five of these and Wyatt three, the other coming from an extra.

The pitch did not lend any assistance to the bowlers. Crisp, Langton, Vincent and Tomlinson making no impression once the batsmen were set. England's skipper had a narrow escape when he was dropped by Tomlinson, in the gully, off Crisp before he had scored while he also survived an appeal for obstruction when his foot stood at only two.

SUTCLIFFE CONFIDENT

Sutcliffe played with his usual calm and confidence and settled down to some pretty square-cutting right from the start. He also exploited a heat leg-glance while he took Langton on the half-volley to score a four on the off-boundary to send up the fifty in forty minutes. About this stage the ball flitting past the leg stump but later on Wyatt indulged in some delightful late-cutting. The score began to mount rapidly and then the Yorkshire batsman sent Langton to long-leg for a three to bring the total to 100. Play had now been in progress for 95 minutes and in the very next over Wyatt reached his fifty with a beautiful on-drive which reached the ropes. He was given a tremendous ovation. Sutcliffe followed suit immediately after and then he got his leg in front of the "faster" run and was given out under the old rule. The partnership produced 117 runs—an excellent start—and Sutcliffe who made no mistake at all in his innings of 61, hit a six and five boundaries.

ELEGANT HAMMOND

The next man in was Wally Hammond and by this time the crowd had swelled to nine thousand. The Gloucester batsman had a rude shock when a full toss from Crisp struck him in the ribs, almost knocking him out. He recovered, however, and then settled down to treat the spectators to some elegant leg shots and driving past cover. In the meantime Wyatt continued to play pretty cricket and late cut Langton for a single to send up the 150 after play had been in progress for 155 minutes.

The batsmen then began to score at the rate of a run a minute when Hammond mis-judged the pace from the pitch and got his leg in front of one from Vincent, the umpire upholding the bowler's appeal for obstruction. The outgoing batsman had scored 23 and it was bad luck he should have been out in this manner as he looked "good for a century." The score board at this stage read 170-2-28.

INNES COMES AND GOES Mitchell Innes, the young Oxford University batsman, who was making his debut in Test cricket, joined Wyatt but he was not destined to stay very long for after he had scored but five runs he fell victim—the third one—to the l.b.w. rule, the bowler again being Vincent. With the score at 179 for 3, Maurice Leyland went out to partner his captain and it was at this stage that the South Africans treated the spectators to some magnificent fielding. They were so alert that Wyatt's score stayed at 76 for fifteen minutes but Leyland played fearlessly to bring off some runs and drives that flashed to the boundary, sending up the 200 in 205 minutes.

WYATT'S HUNDRED

Though subdued for a while, Wyatt never lost confidence and continued to give the full face of the bat to every delivery sent down to him. Then with a late cut—taken very late—he scored the four runs required to give him his first Test century of the season. He had taken 245 minutes to accomplish it and was given a tremendous round of cheer by the spectators, the South Africans joining in this demonstration of goodwill.

With the total at 251 for 3, a stop was made for tea, Wyatt's share being 105 and Leyland's 43, both batsmen being not out.

RECORD SET UP

Far from putting the batsmen off their game, the tea interval had the effect of making them return to the fray with renewed vigour and they attacked the bowling with such freedom that they went on to beat the record for the fourth wicket partnership (122) set up by Hayward and Hill in Johannesburg in the far off days of 1895-6. Leyland reached his half-century in 105 minutes and when he was only one run short of the 150 mark Wyatt was out to a catch by Wade at short square-leg off Crisp. He had batted for 290 minutes during which time he sent the ball to the boundary on no less than seven occasions.

Leyland did not stay very long after he had lost his partner, for with the score at 325 and his own contribution at 60, he was caught in the slips by Mitchell off Crisp. It took him 110 minutes to score his runs which included five boundaries.

Leslie Ames who had come out in place of Wyatt now had Iddon as his partner but neither of them stayed very long. After he had collected 17, Ames was caught almost on the boundary by Viljoen while Iddon gave a sitter to Rowan at mid-on, the bowler again being Vincent. Iddon's contribution was 29 while Ames's who had joined him after Ames had left, was not out with 13. Mr. Extras contributed a like total, bringing England's score to 394 for 7 at the close of play.

The scores up to the close of play were:

ENGLAND, 1ST INNINGS. Sutcliffe, l.b.w. b. Langton 61. Wyatt, c. Wade, b. Crisp, 149. Hammond, l.b.w. b. Vin- cent 61.

MILE OF THE CENTURY

Thrilling Race Won By Lovelock

Princeton, June 15.

Forty thousand people in a stifling tempered brisk breeze saw the international meeting result of the "Mile of the Century" which was won by Lovelock in 4 minutes 11-2/10 seconds with ten yards to spare from Bonthron, Cunningham being third half a yard behind. It was one of the most thrilling races ever seen and the title "Mile of the Century" truly described it, though no new record was established.

From the firing of the gun, Mangan, the American three-quarter mile record holder shot into the lead with Lovelock fourth. Half way round the first lap Lovelock went up third. Meanwhile Cunningham had

"SANATOGEN will soon put him right again"

Physicians know by experience, how quickly and surely Sanatogen will build up strength in debilitated patients.

Whatever the cause of the weakness, be it illness, overwork or worry, Sanatogen cannot fail to do good. The phosphorus it contains is pure strength to the weakened nerve-cells. The albumin is nature's own building material of bodily power. It is the intricate combination of these two elements that has won Sanatogen the written recommendations of over 25,000 physicians.

And the splendid part of it is that Sanatogen is not only a true tonic-food, but also very easily digestible, so that the weakest patient, and the weakest stomach, can digest it.

Sanatogen must do you good. It does not interfere with any medical treatment, and every glassful brings you nearer to perfect health again. Shorten that tedious period of convalescence. Be strong and healthy again. You can if you start your course of Sanatogen today.

DAVIS CUP

TENNIS

Germans Surprise

Berlin, June 14.

Germany's Davis Cup team today surprisingly swamped the Australian challenge in the semi-final round of the European Zone, winning the first two singles matches.

Australia's ace, Jack Crawford lost to Von Cramm, the German Number One, in straight sets, 6-3, 7-5, 6-2.

Henkel, Germany's Number Two, accounted for McGrath, losing the first set 4-6, and then taking three in a row, 6-2, 6-0, 6-2.

Thus Australia is faced with the almost impossible task of winning the remaining three matches. In the doubles they have a better than even chance, but in the singles only a miracle can help them. McGrath is not in Von Cramm's class, and it becomes necessary for him to beat the German.

Having eliminated France, Australia was given more than a chance to win to the final round of the European Zone. Against America, Australia was given the choice, and it looked as though the Antipodeans would meet Britain in the challenge round. But it looks that way no longer.

Czechoslovakia and South Africa, the other semi-finalists in the European Zone, have to finish their tie before June 20.

Czech Successes

Prague, June 15.

In the Davis Cup (European Zone) semi-final, Czechoslovakia won two singles ties from South Africa. The results were:—

R. Menzel (Czechoslovakia) beat N. Farquharson (South Africa) 6-2, 5-7, 6-3, 6-2.

Caska (Czechoslovakia) beat Bertram (South Africa) 6-2, 6-4, 6-1.

Australians Win

Berlin, June 15.

Jack Crawford and Adrian Quist (Australia) beat Lund and Denker (Germany) 6-1, 11-8, 6-3.

Beaten

London, June 15.

In the Beckenham (Kent) tennis championship finals, H.W. (Bunny) Austin and Fred Perry were surprising beaten, while in the singles final the Japanese Davis Cup player, Yamagishi, accounted for his rival.

Mrs. Helens Willis Moody's success over Miss Stammers was short-lived as Miss Dorothy Round, Wimbledon champion, accounted for the former in straight sets in half an hour.

Tuckey and Frank Wilde beat Austin Perry 4-6, 6-2, 7-5.

Yamagishi beat Collins 6-3, 6-1.

MISS ROUND'S SUCCESS

In the women's final, Miss Dorothy Round, the Wimbledon champion, beat Miss Kathleen Stammers, yesterday's conqueror of Mrs. Helen Willis Moody, 6-2, 6-0. Miss Round took only half an hour for victory.

ATTEMPTED SUICIDE

A case of attempted suicide on board the Electric Star occurred on Saturday evening when at about 6.05 p.m. as the ferry was nearing the Kowloon Wharf a 19 year-old Chinese named Lam Yau, employed as a ward boy at the Combined Military Hospital, Kowloon jumped overboard.

His action was seen by Kwok Ping, a stoker and Wong Yau, a seaman of the Northern Star which was standing by at the time. These two men immediately jumped into the water and after a short struggle they took the man aboard a motor boat. He was later taken to the Kowloon Hospital, little the worse for his adventure.

HANDS

Found To Have Been Fractured

New York, June 14.

An X-Ray examination has shown that Baer suffered two fractures of small bones in the right hand during his fight yesterday. There is also a chip fracture of the left hand. He has a swelling the size of a marble near the left wrist joint.

The new champion's handlers were quick to spoil any chance Baer may have had for putting up an alibi, on the strength of broken hands, by revealing that their man fought with two badly damaged ribs, injured during training and scarcely healed.

FLAX INSTEAD OF MULBERRY

Canton, June 15.

Owing to the slump in the raw silk market, the villagers of the Nam Ho and Sai Chiu Districts are limiting the cultivation of mulberry plants for the rearing of silk worms.

This is due to the great decline in the price of mulberry leaves, and therefore the villagers have been forced to cease growing mulberry and sacrifice their valuable plantations.

It is reported that hundreds of acres of these once flourishing plantations are now doomed, and the unfortunate villagers are helpless.

The elders and landowners of the different villages are now planning ways and means for financing the distressed villagers, and introducing as a remedial measure, the planting of oranges and other fruits, flax etc.

It is also reported that already over ten villages are growing flax instead of the mulberry, and the experiment is being carefully watched. — Wah Kiu Yat po.

 Communists having dropped cer-

The Socialist Federation, in an

BERLIN BOURSE

(Special to the "Hong Kong Daily Press" (Copyright).)

Berlin, June 15.

Although in harmony with what usually happens in week-end business, the sharemarket was exceedingly quiet as prices were held up well to this confident attitude on the part of the investors and operators having been induced partly by Dr. Schacht's speech before the Danzig merchants on Friday, and partly because of the hopeful cables from London concerning the naval discussions.

Fixed interest securities were el-most unheeded but prices underwent only slight changes. Gold mortgage bonds being a share firmer. Call Money rose from 2 1/2 to 2 3/4, Young Loan unquoted at 103.
 Reichsbanks sprang 2 1/2 to 180, Dye-trusts 1 firmer at 153, Salzdetfurth
 Potash 1 weaker at 175 1/2, German
 Steel Trusts rose 1/2 to 34 1/2, German
 Mineral Oils weakened 1/2 to 11 1/2
 Siemenshalske went down 1/2 to 175 1/2, Bemberg Rayon declined 1/2 to 125 1/2.

The week finished with Reichs-banks 4 1/2 points above the quotation at the beginning, Electrical Metallurgicals somewhat firmer but all other sections of the investment market were about on the same levels as at the opening of the week. This is in so far remarkable as the prices all round underwent substantial rises at a time when speculation against the French franc was causing grave anxiety, leading in Germany to purchase all kinds of sound shares in preference to fixed interest securities because of their fear that dislocations depreciating the franc would seriously affect Germany.

As the franc crisis is considered now past owing to the plenary powers with which the French cabinet has been entrusted by the Parliament to enable the Government to fight speculation, it would be but logical if the German share prices declined to the level prevailing before the franc crisis began. That this has not taken place is attributed mainly to the many very favourable balance sheets in industrial and commercial undertakings published since the rise has taken place, which all tend to promote confidence and to establish the share prices at a higher level.
